Unhappy Women!

No woman can be happy when her health is undermined. No woman can have good health while she suffers from female weakness, inflammation, ulceration or any disease of the delicate womanly organs. Nervous, sleepless, fretful, suffering in body and mind, she does not live but only exists.

More than a half a million such women have found a perfect and permanent cure for their diseased condition in the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Women cured by this remedy say it is a "wonderful medicine," so perfectly does it restore them to health and comeliness.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," neither does it contain opium, cocaine, nor any other harmful drug. It is in the strictest sense, an honest, temperance medicine. Its ingredients are purely vegetable, and it will agree with the most delicate constitution.

☞ Don't be hypnotized, or over persuaded, into accepting a substitute. This medicine has a record that's worth far more than any difference in price.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, either personally or by letter, absolutely without charge or fee, thus avoiding the unpleasant questionings, offensive examinations and obnoxious local treatments considered necessary by many local practitioners. All correspondence treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets These tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules regulate Stomach, Liver and Bowels, cure Constipation and Bad Stomach, attended by foul breath. One or two for laxative, three or four for cathartic.

This great family Doctor Book FREE on receipt of 21 one-cent postage stamps to cover cost of mailing; or, in fine cloth binding 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

DISORDERS IN CHICAGO.

Fighting in the street of Chicago yesterday, growing out of the teamsters' strike, was even more fierce and savage than that of Monday. The strikers and their sympathizers attacked the non-union men at every opportunity, assailing them with bricks, stones, clubs, knives, and any and every offensive weapon upon which they could lay their hands.

The fighting occurred in the heart of the business section of the city, men being shot down within 200 feet of the retail store of Marshall Field & Co., clubbed nearly to death at the coroner of the Auditorium Hotel in plain view of hundreds of ladies, who were compelled to run from the mob to save their own lives. In many instances men walking along the streets who had no active connection whatever with the strike, were assaulted by hoodlums, who beat them first and later accused them of being strike breakers.

A notable instance of this kind was that of Rev. W. K. Wheeler, pastor of the Ninth Presbyterian Church, who while passing the corner of Desplaines and Adams streets, on his way to the Pennsylvania depot, was attacked by three men, who knocked him down and beat him unmercifully, until the timely arrival of the police saved him from further injury. Mr. Wheeler managed to hold one of his assailants until the police could arrest him.

William Miles, a colored waiter, while at work in a lunch room at Adams and Saugamon streets, half a mile from any former scene of rioting during the strike, was also a victim of the strikers' fury although he had no connection whatever with the trouble. He was accused of being a strike breaker, was pounded on the head with a billy, knocked down and trampled on. Miles was removed to the hospital, where his injuries were pronounced severe.

As far as known but one man was killed during the day. The list of injured is much greater than that which is possible to obtain. In many cases the non-union men swung their clubs with great effect, knocking men from their wagons headlong into the street; in other instances, when assailed by mobs they fired point blank into the crowds and it is difficult to see how the members of the mob could escape many broken heads or how all the bullets fired during the day should have gone wild.

Mayor Refused to Act.

Mayor Buxton, of Newport News, yesterday specifically refused to take any action in regard to the alleged gambling games and raffles in progress at the Elks' fair in that place. He was called upon by Rev. E. T. Wellford, opposite whose church the fair is being held, and who on Sunday preached a sermon, in which the fair was scored. To the minister's complaint he said:

"If you choose to place the responsibility on me, I accept it, and will state that as far as I am concerned, as mayor of the city, nothing will be done in reference to the alleged gambling games that are being conducted at the Elks' bazaar."

Mayor Buxton was elected to office on a reform platform, and Rev. Mr. Wellford expressed himself as keenly disappointed with the stand taken by the mayor, holding that the games complained of are in strict violation of the letter and spirit of a State law. While Rev. Mr. Wellford's scathing denunciation of the alleged gambling caused much talk, the Elks have continued their raffles and the wheel of fortune, to which the objection was made. The only way in which the matter may now be reached is through the grand jury, and it is not thought likely that body will take it up.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, had no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 3, 1905.

IF THE State of New Jersey has a conscience, it must feel hurt in view of some of the things that Lincoln Steffens is saying in McClure's. The May number has a second instalment of "New Jersey: a Traitor State," in which is told how New Jersey sold out the United States. Mr. Steffens names James B. Dill, a well-known New York lawyer, who lives in New Jersey, as the man who suggested the scheme "to make New Jersey a mecca for corporations." The first step was the formation of a company which should advertise New Jersey as a charter-granting State. This was known as the Corporation Trust Company of New Jersey. All the prominent State officials were in it, as well as representatives of the then existing corporations. Prior to this, the federal government of twenty-two States had enacted anti-trust laws; but, notwithstanding this, New Jersey began to invite the formation of trusts within her border, which could then go out free to disregard the laws of other States. This is what Mr. Steffens describes as "New Jersey's spirit of treason." Besides the incorporation, New Jersey enabled promoters to buy up competing companies without paying more money for them, but merely shares to the trust. Directors were given conclusive authority as to the value of the property purchased. At present, Mr. Steffens says, the government of New Jersey is a syndicate whose leading interests are the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Prudential Insurance Company, the Fidelity Trust and the Public Service Corporation. Senator John F. Dryden is described as the "chief visible representative of the system." At bottom, the whole corrupt system is found to be due to the lack of real representative government.

DR. MADISON C. PETERS, in his sermon last Sunday night at the Park Theatre, Philadelphia, criticised the critics of John D. Rockefeller. He said in part:

If like hundreds of other millionaires, Rockefeller spent his money on women and wine, on $50,000 banquets or at the gambling table, there would be no criticism. If his son spent his sabbaths in ways of sin instead of leading hundreds of young men in the ways of righteousness himself setting the example of a holy life, he would not be held up to ridicule. If the churches are going to make sure that no tainted money gets into the Lord's treasury, they will get so little that the richest churches at least would soon close up.

There are probably but few churches in the world which do not receive money which has passed through questionable channels, and should the Head of the Church reappear, He would find the whipcord as necessary as in days of old. Rockefeller money is not the only coin which falls into the plate with a suspicious ring.

THE PRESENT serious condition of affairs in Chicago, the outcome of a teamsters' strike, afford food for reflection. Mob law seems to prevail in certain localities, and people who have nothing to do with the issues which have precipitated the troubles, take their lives in their own hands when they appear in certain sections of this great western city. What will be the end of these troubles no one can foresee, but that such conditions actually prevail in one of the largest cities in the world at the beginning of the twentieth century is a commentary upon the peace dreams of some. Dispatches from certain quarters of the world today are to the effect that this country is endeavoring to bring about peace between Russia and Japan. There is much to do in the way of doorstep cleaning in our own domains before we attempt to regulate others.

THAT THE downfall of Frank G. Bigelow, the defaulting president of the First National Bank of Milwaukee, was due to his unwarranted belief that he possessed great business ability was the statement made in Chicago yesterday by one of his friends. The world has ever been annoyed by certain people who are born with little genius but with a superabundance of egotism, who imagine themselves Admirable Crichtons. Their self-sufficiency, ignorance and recklessness sooner or later bring disaster upon themselves and often others are compelled to bear their burdens.

THE democrats of Baltimore yesterday elected nineteen of the twenty-four first branch councilmen and three of the four second branch candidates. This gives them control of both branches by safe majorities and they should now hold control for an indefinite time. Baltimore is a democratic city and would always have been so but for the treachery of men who had been reared in the democratic camp and elected to office by democrats.

THE London Daily Graphic has created a sensation by an article declaring on the highest authority that the big twelve inch wire guns of the battleship Majestic were crippled after firing the equivalent of only forty full charges. If this is true, then fifteen of the latest British battleships would be out of action after firing their guns for twenty minutes. Great Britain is the only power which manufactures wire-wound guns.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

In the presence of members of the Cabinet, the Supreme Court, the Diplomatic Corps, and other high government officials, as well as the 800 delegates to the International Railroad Congress, representing 48 different nations of the world, the American Railway Appliance Exhibition was formally opened at noon today. For two months past workmen have been busy transforming the Washington monument grounds into a miniature Worlds Fair in which every modern American device used in railroading will be on display, from brass bolts heads to trains of cars. The last piece of machinery was put in place early this morning In all there are 375 exhibitors, many of them having erected their own buildings, of which there are 71. Most of the structures are painted white. The opening address was made by George A. Post, of New York, chairman of the general committee ot arrangements. The principal address of the day was made by Secretary of the Navy Morton, formerly vice president of the Sante Fe system. Mr. Morton paid a glowing tribute to American inventive genius and enterprise in railroading and commented significantly on the fact that although railroad freight rates in the United States are the lowest in the world, American railways pay their employees better wages than railroad men receive in other countries. Speeches were also made by Secretary of War Taft, Stuyvesant Fish, President of the American Section of the Congress; George Westinghouse, one of the principal exhibitors, and Max Edler von Leber of Austria, member of the Commission of the Congress. The programme was interpersed with music by the Engineers, Band from Washington Barracks. Immediately after the ceremonies the various buildings were thrown open for the inspection of the guests. This evening the managers of the Exhibition have arranged to send out the international time signal, which, it is hoped, will make the circuit of the globe. The signals will begin at 11:55 and close exactly at midnight.

James J. Hill, President of the Great Northern Railway who was unexpectedly called to stand before the Senate committee on Interstate Commerce this afternoon informed the Senators that although the commercial and industrial interests of the country were striving to enlarge export trade the restrictions placed upon the railroads by the Interstate Commerce Commission were killing the great trade already established. As an illustration of this, he cited the fact that his road had annually carried 40,000 tons of flour for Australia and Asiatic points. The Interstate Commerce Commission required his road to file a public schedule of the division of the rate. Inasmuch as the regulations require that no published rate can be changed without making public the new rate, immediate advantage thereof would be taken by German and other shipping lines. His road therefore abandoned this trade. He declared that the demands upon his road were so great that the total abandonment and export trade would not effect the road's dividends one cent.

Acting under orders of Senator T. C Platt, of New York, president of the United States Express Company, an official of that concern late yesterday afternoon called up acting Secretary of the Treasury Taylor by long distance telephone from Chicago, and asked whether it would be possible, in case of trouble with the strikers, to secure an escort of federal troops for express wagons carrying government money. Mr. Taylor told him that this was out of the question, as it might lay the government open to the charge of affording military protection to wagons carrying other than government property. He added, however, that if the situation should become so serious that the express companies could not transport government funds without protection, the Treasury Department would temporarily take over the delivery of moneys from the railroad stations to the sub-treasury using for that purpose army wagons and troops. The Secretary of War has already issued tentative orders contingent on such circumsance. Mr. Taylor then asked whether there had as yet arisen any need for troops and was told that there had not, but that the company feared they would be necessary latter on.

It is understood that the majority of bishops who meet here tomorrow will favor Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, as the candidate for cardinal. After receiving the selections the Pope will probably make the promotion in June.

Over sixty Englishmen, including some of the most prominent railroad men in the United Kingdom, have reached Washington to attend the International Railway Congress.

The Postoffice Department has issued a fraud order against Edward T. Hunter & Co., of Philadelphia and Newark, and A. J. Warner & Co., of Washington. A. J. Barry is, according to the postal authorities, both companies rolled in one. He has been skipping from one place to another since 1894 when he was "Morton and Company" at 50 Broadway, New York. He promised his clients profits of 100 per cent in 30 days "principal guaranteed," but failed both to pay the profits and to settle his newspaper advertising bills.

Robbers in Evening Dress.

As the rathskeller in the Portland Hotel, Oregon, was closing last night three men in full evening dress and wearing diamonds stepped up to the cashier's desk, ostensibly to settle for refreshments. One of the trio attracted the cashier's attention while another reached over the desk and seized $135 from the cash drawer. The three darted upstairs, pursued by a watchman. Two of the robbers were caught by the watchman on the fourth floor of the hotel. The third was captured in the Ainsworth National Bank. At the jail the men gave their names as G. H. Hanlon, J. S. Stafford, and William Kane. All the money stolen was recovered. Kane's true name is said to be William Barrett, and Stafford is said to be known as Fritzie D. Hein. The police authorities of the principal cities were advised of the capture, and a request came from Baltimore to hold Hein and Barrett. The Portland police say that Barrett served a long term in a French prison for the robbery of a bank messenger in Paris of 400,000 francs.

To Grow Opium in the United States.

Secretary Wilson and other officials of the Agricultural Department are being bombarded with protests from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and other women's organizations because of the attempt of the department to grow opium in the United States.

As a result of experiments, it has been discovered that opium can be produced in this country at a profit. For many centuries the Chinese, on account of cheap labor, have engaged in this industry exclusively. The Agricultural Department has discovered how to reduce the amount of labor required, and there is now no bar to the successful production of the poppy, which means that opium, which forms an important part of many drugs, will be grown in the United States.

Even with cheap Chinese labor the cost of opium is high because of the great amount of labor involved. When the time arrives for harvesting, a number of Chinamen, armed with slender knives, are put to work in the field. They make an incision in each plant, and juice exudes. It hardens, and later a man goes through the field and gathers the hardened substance from each stalk. After this the opium is manufactured by a slow process. Prof. Calloway, of the Bureau of Plant Industry, has been conducting experiments for a long time, and it has been discovered that by a new process of distillation the laborious process of gathering the poppy juice can be dispensed with. The poppy plant can now be harvested as any other plant and the entire cutting is placed in a retort and distilled. Notwithstanding the protests of the women, the department officials will continue working on the line they have mapped out, and they are confident that within a few years the American farms will grow all the opium consumed in this country.

Horrible Death.

James B. Cannon, son of a Laurel, Md., farmer, employed as chef in a leading Philadelphia club until he became such a religious crank that he was considered dangerous, met a horrible death in Greenwood yesterday. Leaving Laurel Monday, he went to Greenwood and began holding meetings in the streets. He was ordered to desist, and, on assuming a threatening attitude, was arrested and placed in the small wooden jail preparatory to being sent to an asylum. His praying and singing kept the town in a stir until about 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Soon after he had quieted down and the citizens had fallen asleep the jail was discovered to be on fire. Vigorous efforts were made to save the unfortunate man, but without avail, as the building was soon reduced to ashes. When the ruins were searched for the body of Cannon only a small part of his body and a few bones were found. Coroner Pepper's jury rendered a verdict that Cannon came to his death at his own hands. It is supposed that he fired the building.

The Election in Baltimore.

The municipal election in Baltimore yesterday resulted in a sweeping democratic victory. Of the twenty-four candidates for the first branch of the city council, the republicans elected only five. The democrats also elected three of the four second branch councilmen. This gives them the control of both branches.

The big fight was made for and against three loans, one of which for $10,000,000 is to provide for a sewerage system. The corporations who will be compelled to stand all expenses of removing pipes, conduits, and tracks, fought the loans, and they were assisted by some politicians All were carried by 12,000 majority.

The surprise of the day was the defeat of Councilman Watty, the only negro who has a seat in the council. He represents a ward in which the negroes are in the majority, but they turned against him and elected O. M. Dennis, a young white lawyer, by two votes. Congressman Watcher lost his ward by 500 votes.

GEN LEE'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee will take place from St. Paul's Church, Richmond, at 2 o'clock tomorrow, (Thursday) and Bishop A. M. Randolph will conduct the services, assisted by Rev. Beverly Tucker, of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Norfolk; Rev. Landon R. Mason, of Grace street, Richmond, and Rev. Robert Barnwell, acting rector of St. Paul's Richmond.

As stated yesterday, a beautiful site in Hollywood has been selected for the burial. The lot lies between the grave of Jefferson Davis and the bluff overlooking James river.

The body of General Lee lies in state in the rotunda of the City Hall and it was viewed by many people yesterday. The casket is piled high with beautiful flowers and they are being constantly added to. The funeral will be the most imposing since the burial of Jefferson Davis and the military feature will be impressive.

Governor Douglas, of Massachusetts, may attend the funeral with his staff, as well as Governor Warfield and staff, of Maryland. The merchants of Richmond will close their places of business during the hours of the funeral.

Many of the military companies of the State will take part in the funeral, the generosity of the railroads in granting free transportation to the troops making this possible.

Delegations will also be present at the funeral from veteran organizations in various parts of the State.

It is expected that the funeral procession will be one of the longest ever seen in Richmond. Col. Charles T. O'Ferrall, former governor, will be the chief marshal. There will be a long line of military and veteran organizations, and the Confederate auxiliaries formed by the ladies will be present in carriages.

If Governor Montague be still too ill to participate in the ceremonies Lieutenant-Governor Joseph E. Willard will act as governor and will be accompanied by the staff.

Lieut-Gov. Willard, president of the Senate, has designated Messrs. Arthur C. Harman, Henry T. Wickham and William A. McIlwain to represent that branch of the General Assembly, and Mr. John F. Ryan, Speaker of the House, will designate three members of that body to represent the House at the funeral. The Virginia judiciary will be represented by the Court of Appeals, with the exception of Judge R. H. Cardwell, who will be unable to be present.

The members of Congress from Virginia will ride in carriages in the funeral procession as representatives of the United States government. Senators Daniel and Martin and Representatives Jones, Maynard, Lamb, Southall, Swanson, Hay, Rixey, Slemp and Flood compose the delegation. It is not known how many contemplate being present or can so arrange their business as to be present.

Colonel George Wayne Anderson will command the Seventieth Virginia Regiment, with Lieutenant-Colonel William J. Perry, of Staunton; Majors C. Gray Bossieux, of Richmond; Stanley W. Martin, of Danville, and James E. King, of Alexandria, and William M. Randolph, M. D., of Charlottesville. He will also be accompanied by the members of the regimental staff. Colonel A. M. Higgins, of Norfolk, will command the Seventy-first regiment of infantry.

Richmond, May 3.—Speaker Ryan today wired naming Delegates Anderson, Thompson and Cox, of Richmond, to represent the House of Delegates at the Lee funeral. Mr. Eppa Hunton, jr., and Dr. Chas. W. Kent have been added as representatives of the University of Virginia.

Southern Railway Textile Directory.

The land and industrial department of the Southern Railway has issued a pamphlet under the title "Southern Railway Textile Directory," showing a total of 650 mills on the line of the system, equipped with 169,937 looms and 6,698,426 spindles, or a gain since January 1, 1903, not including mills now under construction, of 52 mills, with equipment of 22,816 looms and 954,726 spindles. Territory served by the Southern Railway and associate lines now contains practically 90 per cent. of the cotton spindles in the South. This growth in cotton manufacturing is also interesting from the fact that no further back than 1890 the total mill equipment of the Southern States was but 36,266 looms and 1,554,000 spindles.

Disorders in Poland.

Warsaw, May 3.—Imitating the example of the American colonists, before the revolutionary war, the Polish leaders have formed the Polish League, for the purpose of persauding all classes of the people to cease buying goods which yield any tax to the government.

Acting on the suggestion of the new league, working men have already begun boycotting commodities which are sold as government monopolies. They have given up almost entirely the use of spirits, and tobacco. Workmen who persist in using either, are expelled from the workshops. The movement is spreading to all the large towns in Poland and the Polish league promises to become a powerful organization, which will exercise a vast influence in Polish affairs. The strike leaders have issued a proclamation threatening death to any striker who is found stealing. Even the rifles of the soldiers killed in the conflicts with the people must not be touched under the order of the strike managers.

Warsaw, May 3.—12:30 p. m. Today is the 114th anniversary of the proclamation of the Polish constitution by the last Polish king. In celebration of the event, all the churches have been crowded all day and the afternoon newspapers will not appear.

A number of street demonstrations occurred this morning and the strikers are now gathering in the main streets of the city.

Great fears are expressed that the holiday will be made the occasion for an attempt to weak vengeance on the soldiers and police who have shot down the people so heartlessly in the last few days.

This morning an unknown culprit fired a revolver into a crowd of police, killing a sergeant.

The greatest excitement prevailes through the city. Strong patrols of soldiers and police are guarding all the streets. This morning a man was arrested in the suburbs, who was carring a bomb. The arrest created a great sensation.

The disturbances are not confined to Warsaw alone. At Lodz, this morning, a crowd attacked a number of policemen. A sergeant was killed, and a detective wounded. Soldiers who rushed to the assistance of the police fired into the crowd, killing four persons and wounding three others.

Jews in the town of Resina, Bessarabia province, are greatly excited as the result of anti-semitic proclamations, which have been spread broadcast through the town. They have telegraphed to the provisional governor saying that they fear a massacre, and demanding protection.

The Fleets.

Tokio, May 3.—It is now rumored that the destination of all the Russian fleets is Petropaulovski, in Kamschatka peninsula, northeastern Asia, extending into the Pacific ocean, and separating Behring sea from the sea of Okotsk instead of Vladivostok. The Russians, it is stated, have been accumulating coal at Petropaulovski but it is inadequate for land defense.

Petropaulovski is the capital of Kamschatka and is located on the coast of the peninsula on the bay of Avatcha. It is about 1,200 miles northeast of Vladivostok, in a straight line, and the Russians will have to sail a greater distance to make it by sea. The port is small, and the normal population is under 1,000. It is the principal military station of Russia in that region.

Hong Kong, May 3.—The British steamer Woodrord reports seeing a Russian volunteer cruiser and some German vessels taking on coal and provisions in the Saigon river. The Woodford's officers say that thousands of tons of coal are stacked along the Saigon river for the use of the Russians. Twelve transports were observed lying off the mouth of the river.

Board of Education.

Richmond, May 3.—The State Board of Education was in session some hours last night examining the lists of applicants for the office of school superintendents. The cities concerned were in alphabetical order from Petersburg to Roanoke. At 10 o'clock today the board began the investigation made by J. D. Eggleston, jr., regarding alleged overcharge for teachers' registers.

LATER.

The Board of Education has postponed the school register investigation until May 23rd, owning to the absence of the governor and Captain West, another member who is considering the school superintendents today.

The governor is still sick, but is slowly improving.

Wife Murder and Suicide.

Hackensack, N. J., May 3.—John Terhune, superintendent of public schools of Bergen county since 1884, shot and killed his wife, and then committed suicide at their home on Bergen street, Hackensack, this morning. Terhune has been suffering from nervous depression for some months, and was bothered by pains in the head, but was able to be about. Terhune was 58 years old and his wife 56.

Will Recompense the Concessionaires

St. Petersburg, May 3.—It is stated that the Government has decided to recompense the concessionaires who controlled valuable properties along the Yalu river, and in Corea, for the loss of their mines and the forests, which was due to the war operations in that region. The concessionaires include the Czar and most of the Grand Dukes and they will be paid 7,000,000 roubles.

Condition Critical.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 3.—The condition of Henry Guy Carleton the playwright, who was stricken with paralysis here yesterday is regarded as critical today. The physician in attendance appears to have but little hope of ultimate recovery, though he feels that Mr. Carleton may last in his present helpless condition for months.

Proceedings Instituted Against Officials.

St. Petersburg, May 3.—The commander of the Russian Black Sea squadron has ordered legal proceedings to be instituted against numerous high officials of the navy department who are stationed at Sevastopol. The commander charges that these officers have been guilty of selling war ship supplies and of pocketing the proceeds.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 3.—The stock market opened wholly irregular. Northern Pacific rose 1 per cent. The general stock market at noon was rather quiet, with prices holding about steady. At present the market is quite dull.

The Strike in Chicago.

Chicago, May 3.—Blood began flowing early today in Chicago's riot ridden streets. Sluggers, armed with hickory canes, brass knuckles, and black jacks, made indiscriminate attacks upon citizens without regard to age, or calling of their victims. Within two hours after dawn eight men had been dangerously beaten, one of them, a Catholic priest, who had just administered last rites for the dying for another victim of the sluggers, while the negroes imported from many cities of the south where they could draw them from, were dealing with citizens with clubs and billies, or slashing at them with daggers, Frank Curry, strike breaker, his head cracked by bricks thrown at him in yesterdays disturbances lies in a critical condition, surgeons almost despairing of his recovery. The Catholic priest who was slugged is Rev. Father Reilly, of St. Cecilia's Church. He had gone to visit Thomas Atkins, who had been terribly beaten by six negroes at Forty-sixth street. Besides the priest and Atkins, four other men were stabbed and beaten at the same place by the same gang, all of them being subsequently arrested. One of the victims is in a hospital, not expected to live. He is William Rogers, stabbed several times in the back, and otherwise injured. Atkins may die. Another person fatally injured is Will Jameson, who was jerked from a trolley car at 26th street and Stewart avenue and beaten almost to a pulp.

Chicago, May 3.—Trouble began early in the strike today. At Forty-sixth street a gang of negro strike breakers who arrived on a train from the South at six o'clock was met by a self constituted guard of the labor element. In the clash a number were injured.

Ideal weather conditions favored violence this morning in the teamsters' strike. After an all night session of labor leaders and those connected with the employers' association, there was no ray of hope of a settlement outside of the arbitrament of the strongest police powers. Riots were numerous yesterday and so far as today is concerned the prospect is not especially encouraging.

The record shows one dead and 68 injured in yesterday's rioting.

The Nan Patterson Case.

New York, May 3.—The love and death tragedy of Nan Patterson near to its completion, and the final chapter will be written today. Recorder Goff this morning charged the jury with the law and the degrees of murder that could be found under the evidence submitted. The jury was then led to the jury room for their deliberations. Nan Patterson awaited the outcome of her trial outside of the court room.

Miss Patterson spent a bad night in the Tombs and this morning she showed the effects of the strain she was under. She is still firm in the belief that she will be acquitted. "Tonight," she said, "I hope to be free and on my way to my mother."

There was a remarkable scene in the woman's prison this morning just before the actress was led away to face her fate. The women prisoners, with whom she is popular, pressed about her and wished her "good luck."

In his charge to the jury, Recorder Goff said that the jury must not consider what the life of the defendant had been, but must give her the same consideration that any woman, no matter her position, should have. The Recorder said that the occupation, the mode of life, and character of the deceased, was also beside the issue. He declared that the worth or worthlessness of the person in this tragedy was not to be considered.

Recorder Goff finished his formal charge to the jury at 12:45 and then took up sixty-nine requests of Lawyer Levy of the defense. The jury returned at 1:02 p. m.

Recorder Goff left the court room at 2 o'clock for luncheon. The jury was still in its room deliberating on the case.

At 2:03 p. m. the jury went out to lunch.

At 4 o'clock a verdict had not been rendered.

Paint Works Destroyed.

Newark, N. J., May 3.—Nothing is left today of the big paint works of the Cawley Clark Company, on the Newark Meadows, but a smoldering lot of ruins. The fire which broke out there at midnight is still burning, but all danger to adjacent property has passed. Several fire companies are still at work on the ruins. The loss; it is stated, will be about $180,000, and the insurance is $140,000. The cause of the fire is unknown. The plant employed several hundred men. The McCormick leather plant adjoining was damaged about $10,000.

Trouble in St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, May 3.—A turbulent crowd last evening sacked a restaurant in Moscow, where a police officer, who had brutally treated a woman, took refuge. The police were unable to cope with the mob, and the cossacks were called out to clear the streets. They accomplished the work with their usual brutality, injuring a number of people.

Fighting is reported at Grodno, where a general strike prevails.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

Fairmont, W. Va., May 3.—John Jones, a negro, was shot and killed today by Dan Russ, at the latter's home, near this city. Jones called at the Russ house and asked for Russ's sister, who he alleged was his (the negro's) mistress. Russ said the woman was not there. Jones threatened Russ and the latter killed him with a squirrel rifle.

Vice Segregation.

In an address in Philadelphia Sunday Mr. Charles N. Crittenton, founder and president of the National Florence Crittenton Mission for fallen women, in furtherance of which he has devoted his life and fortune, condemned Mayor Weaver's advocacy of vice segregation. He said: "Segregation of vice in Philadelphia or any city is criminal. It means moral debasement for any community. Every right-minded citizen who loved his home and believes in civic purity should vigorously oppose such a step. Segregation is not only a blight and a moral cancer upon any municipality that adopts such a method, but it renders doubly hard the work of reclaiming the thousands of unfortunates who are leading lives of shame."

Mrs. Kate Waller Barret, of Alexandria, who has been general superintendent of the mission for fifteen years and is thoroughly conversant with vice conditions in Philadelphia, seconded Mr. Crittenton in her denunciation of segregation. "It would mean nothing else," said Mrs. Barrett, "than municipal partnership with vice. A separate department of police would have control of the vice and that would mean that unfortunate women would be at the mercy of the policeman. Segregation would involve the introduction of the Continental system of registration, and this would virtually be a sentence to a life of shame for any woman."

Says We Will Regret Canal.

Secretary Taft and J. J. Hill, president of the Great Northren Railroad, have had a conference on the subject of railroads in the Philippines. The Secretary asked the railroad man so that he might get his opinion as to what should be done to provide Luzon, at least, with a system of good roads.

The question of isthmian rates was discussed incidentally. Mr. Hill laughed at the idea of the Panama Canal being a factor in the making of transcontinental rates. He told the Secretary that if the canal is finished the transcontinental railroads will make rates so much lower than the all-water route that people will wonder why they were so foolish as to authorize the construction of the water way, which Mr. Hill contendeded would be the most expensive undertaking any government has ever had on its hands.

Mr. Hill reiterated the view he once expressed to the members of the rivers and harbors committee of the House of Representatives, that if he could be free from the obligation of carrying passengers he could build a railroad along every navagable river and drive the steamers out of business by the low rates he would be able to make. That is why he believes not another dollar should be spent by the government in the improvement of the Mississippi or any other river.

Fire in the Mountains.

A dispatch from Middletown, Md., says that one of the greatest fires that ever raged in South Mountain was burning last night above Harmony. The conflagration extends two or three miles in length on one side of the mountain and fully as far on the other side, and presents a magnificent spectacle. The sky is illuminated for a great distance, and the country in the neighborhood of the fire is lighted up by a dull glare. Immense damage, it is though, is being done. The fire started on the east side of the mountain last Sunday, and, after sweeping over a large territory there, crossed to the other side yesterday morning. All day the flames spread with great rapidity, and last night the whole mountain side was a mass o' flames. On Monday the dwelling and barn on the farm of McClintock Young, of Frederick, occupied by Newton Gilbert, narrowly escaped destruction. Word reached Middletown last night that the sawmill plant of Theodore Shafer, of that vicinity, was in great danger.

Drawing to a Close.

The fishery of 1905 is drawing to a close. As has heretofore been stated, it has, in a measure, been disappointing in consequence of the scarcity of shad, as well as the large-sized perch and rock. Prices of all save herring have fluctuated but little during the season. A number of cutters were at work at Fishtown this morning. But one boat was at the dock. Herring were quoted on the vessel at from $1 to $1.50 per thousand.

Some gillers who made "drifts" last night failed to net a shad.

Mr. William Craig caught a rockfish off this city last night which weighed 42 pounds.

Fra Diavolo.

"Fra Diavolo" was repeated at the opera house by "Sharps and Flats" last night before an audience that filled the building. The renditon was even better that that of Monday night. Sharps and Flats deserves much credit for the two delightful entertainments.

At the close of last night's entertainment Mr. Arthur Herbert, on behalf of the Old Dominion Boat Club, in a most graceful manner and in a few appropriate remarks presented Mrs. M. W. O'Brien with a beautiful bouquet of American Beauty roses, amid the applause of the entire audience.

Blackford, of the Episcopal High School near this city.

The company has also received a very handsome passenger car which, it is said, will be used for the purpose of transporting the officers of the company and private parties over the road. It is a magnificent piece of workmanship, approaching as nearly as possible the elegance of a Pullman car, and is equipped with revolving seats, stationary wash-basins, &c.

Animals in a Storm.

With monkeys chattering, elephants trumpeting and parrots screaming, the steasm hip Lucano, from Hamburg, reached New York yesterday, but all the din could not drown the tales the crew told of the wonderful doings of the animal passengers.

A week ago the Lucano ran into a heavy storm, and the great waves, the high winds and the thunder and lightning so frightened the animals that they set up a terrific protest. Two big elephants became so terrified that they began a trumpeting that fairly drowned the noise of the thunder. In their rage they smashed their strong crates and broke the chains that bound their legs. The trumpeting of the elephants was a cue for the other animals, and they joined in the discordant chorus. Not to be outdone, two yaks on the deck began to fight, with their fellow-passengers as a most excited audience.

Singular Matrimonial Agreement.

One of the most remarkable documents ever placed on file in Fairmont, W. Va., was recorded in the office of the County Clerk, a few days ago, by Miss Gertrude Lowther, of Ritchie county. It is an agreement between Miss Lowther and S. W. Harden, of Catawba, W. Va., in which she agrees to become his wife and remain as such until his death, when she is to receive the sum of $1,000 from his estate. Harden is a wealthy widower, 60 years old. He became smitten with Miss Lowther, who is 88 years old; but his children objected to the wedding. Finally it was agreed that the pair should be married, upon the wife relinquishing claim to his estate after his death, with the exception of the $1,000 agreed upon. After the document had been filed the wedding ceremony was proceeded with. Both declare it is purely a love match.

Situation in Crete.

A report from Crete, which wishes to unite with Greece, says the situation in that island is very grave, the insurrection having taken the character of brigandage, with theft, murder, incendiarism and outrages upon women. The local force being quite inadequate to cope with the situation—indeed, eight gendarmes have already been killed—Prince George himself has asked Italy and other protective powers to adopt energetic measures and send a battalion each to check the insurrection, which only nominally has for its object union of the island with Greece. The representatives of the protective powers have decided to use force to maintain the status quo.

Davis, of Portsmouth, State advocate; delegates to the national convention, which meets in Los Angeles, Cal., in June: D. J. Callahan, of Norfolk, and John C. Hagan, of Richmond; alternates, W. M. Doyle, of Lynchburg, and J. J. Sheehan, of Roanoke. The next meeting of the State convention will be held in Alexandria.

Must Take Down Wires.

At a conference with the county commissioners of Prince George county, Md., T. N. Mohler and H. F. Harman, of Tuxedo, were assured of support in the fight of the citizens of Kenilworth against the proposed establishment of a poolroom at that place. An order was given for the removal of the telegraph poles recently erected by the alleged poolroom proprietors, and the committee was informed that the poolroom would not be permitted to operate under Maryland laws.

The bodies of Robert Shaw and his wife, Americans, were found in a field on the outskirts of Blackpool, Eng., today. They had killed themselves by shooting themselves with a revolver. They were married in Philadelphia about five years ago. They were in independent circumstances and had booked their passage to sail for America today, for a visit with Mrs. Shaw's mother, in Philadelphia. Two young children survive them.

The Evening News says that about a fortnight ago, Mr. Shaw learned of an incident in his wife's life, which occurred before their marriage and which distressed him. Last night, he kissed his wife, saying: "I forgive you, everything."

The jury in the case of George Smith, negro, charged with having criminally assaulted and murdered Miss Bell Bloodworth, an estimable white girl, at Decatur, Ala., today returned a verdict of guilty. The trial of Sim Collier, accused of the same crime will begin tomorrow morning. The military are still here guarding the prisoners.

He Did Not Stop to Think.

The amount of energy people sometimes expend in making a bad matter worse is illustrated by the story of a chance encounter in a street car told to the World by a New York man.

It was on a Broadway car, and there were few passengers. A man boarded the car and sat down by my side. His clothing was muddy and torn, and he had a handkerchief wrapped round one hand.

"I guess I am the biggest fool in town," he remarked. I looked interested, and he continued:

"See that car four blocks ahead? Well, I ran a block to overtake it and gave the conductor a dime. He handed me a nickel, which fell from my hand to the street. I yelled for him to stop the car. He did not do it, and I jumped off and landed all spraddled out like an old saddle. See my clothes? Well, the jump did it."

I asked the man if he found the nickel.

"Oh, yes, I found the nickel, but what good did it do me? I could not overtake the car from which I had jumped, and so I boarded this car and gave the nickel to the conductor. So I skinned my hand, spoiled my clothes and risked my neck just to find that five cent piece and give it to the street railway."

All the Transfers She Had.

As a bevy of laughing girls rose to get off a street car the other day at a point where transfers are given they were followed by a demure young woman who had been absorbed in a novel. Just before she alighted she asked the conductor for a transfer, and he, thinking all the girls were of one party, gave her six, which she took without noticing and held in her hand as she stood on the corner waiting for her car, the other girls having gone on walking. When the reader got her car she took a seat and was soon lost again in her novel. Then the conductor came up, and she held out the slips. He took them, counted them and then looked around with a puzzled expression. "Where are the others?" he asked. "Oh," replied the young woman, looking up a moment from her book, "that's all he gave me."—Philadelphia Record.

The First Phonograph.

The first words reproduced and uttered by a phonograph are naturally a matter of historical interest. When Edison was at work on his first phonograph many weeks were consumed in experiment. It is said that when the talking machine was first discovered it was as much a surprise to its inventor as to the world. The Wizard was working on some telephone receivers and was led to put a piece of tinfoil on a cylinder. It recorded sound, and Edison was convinced that the human voice could be recorded and produced. When the time came to make an actual test Edison, with his mind on mechanical details, absentmindedly tested his contrivance with the familiar phrase, "Mary had a little lamb." The verse was the first record taken by the machine.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 3, 1905.

Gory Dew.

In appearance gory dew is a dark red, slimy film, which is frequently seen on damp walls and in shady places. It is in reality one of the lowest forms of vegetable life and is closely allied to the plant to which the famous phenomenon of red snow is chiefly due. Its botanical name is Palmella cruenta. At times patches of it may become quite large, and it will develop into a tough, gelatinous mass.

Ungrateful.

"Some people never thank you, no matter what you do for them," said a small boy. "A feller put a bent pin on the teacher's chair the other day, and when the teacher was about to sit down I pulled the chair out from under him to save him from the pin, and if he didn't lick me for it!"

Well Shaken.

"That's very strange about those chickens of mine."

"What's the matter with them?"

"Why, ever since your dog chased them all over the garden they have been laying nothing but scrambled eggs."

Ambition Gratified.

First Bookworm—Well, I'm working on a file of newspapers now and am entirely satisfied. Second Ditto—You always did have a sneaking ambition to get into the papers.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The most terrible obstacles are such as nobody can see except oneself.—Eliot.

Position In Sleep.

According to Dr. Fischer of Berlin, the most effective position of sleep for obtaining intellectual rest is to keep the head low and the feet slightly elevated. Failing this, the body should at any rate be horizontal, so as to irrigate the brain well. The habit of sleeping with head low and feet high is, according to the doctor, a remedy for brain troubles and some internal maladies. It can be adopted gradually.

Ill Luck Averted.

"My dear," said Mrs. Spenders by way of preliminary, "would you consider an opal unlucky?"

"I would if I got a bill for one and had to pay it," began her husband sternly.

"Oh," she interrupted, "I'm so glad I ordered a diamond instead!"—Catholic Standard and Times.

Sarcastic.

Cholly—D'you know, I'm sometimes inclined to think— Clara (encouragingly)—Why don't you do it, Cholly? It's not such a difficult thing if you really try.

Limit to Rights,

Even the free citizen of a free country may not have in all cases the right to do what he pleases with his own property.—Galveston News.

Not So Enjoyable.

Friend—Your wedding breakfast was a delightful affair. Mr. Honeymoon (with a sigh)—Yes, but we've had others since.

All Leaked Out.

"Of course," said the husband, who made a specialty of manufacturing excuses, "the truth is bound to leak out some time."

"Yes," rejoined the other half of the matrimonial combine, "and I am inclined to believe that it leaked out of you long ago."

The American Ankle.

Our transatlantic cousins have certainly cultivated to perfection the art of looking dainty as they cross the street. Somehow they always contrive to look attractive while engaged in this usually unbecoming action.—London World.

Man's Reasonableness

is often as great as women's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five [5] physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, price 50c.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following recently appeared in the Aitcheson (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well-known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co.
